Terms of the agreement:

- The hire period is for 24 hours, or multiples there of, and items should be returned to Scapa Scuba within the agreed period of hire. Late returns will incur additional days hire unless agreed in advance.
- Early return does not affect the cost of the hire.
- The kit should be thoroughly checked on receipt and before water entry as responsibility for correct use rests with the diver. Misuse, inability to use correctly or subsequent damage resulting is the responsibility of the hirer. The hirer is responsible for any damage or loss howsoever caused.
- Equipment can only be rented to certified divers.
- The hirer must treat the equipment in accordance with manufacturers and Scapa Scuba's best practice and recommendations. Please see the attached sheet of guidelines.
- The hirer should notify Scapa Scuba of any faults or damage on return, or as soon as possible
- The hirer agrees to have the cost of any loss incurred during hire debited from their credit card.
- The hirer acknowledges that the equipment supplied is in good condition and good repair. Any errors or faults in the equipment, due to its use or misuse, is the sole responsibility of the hirer.

Your signature on this statement is required as proof that you have received the diving equipment stated overleaf and that you have read the terms of this agreement above. You are advised to confirm that you are satisfied with the diving equipment that you are hiring before accepting this contract.
